

Japan's Relationship with India

-- Key Challenges and Opportunities

Speaker

Ambassador Aftab Seth

Dr. Aftab Seth is former Ambassador of India to Japan (2000-03). In the 1960s, he spent a year at Keio University, studying Japanese language and history, before joining the Indian Foreign Ministry in 1968. After completing his term as Ambassador to Japan, Dr. Seth has served in various positions, including as the Director of Global Security Research Institute at Keio (2004-06) and as the Chairman of Japan India Partnership Forum. He is currently the Chairman and CEO of India Global Link Co. He is the author of three books, including If an Elephant Loses Weight, It is Still an Elephant (象は痩せても象である—インドから見た巨象・日本の底力).

Moderator

Tadashi Anno

(Professor of Political Science, Faculty of Liberal Arts, Sophia University / Director, Sophia Institute of International Relations)

■ Date&Time: Thursday, Nov. 7, 2019 17:30~19:00

■ Venue: Sophia Institute of International Relations
Building No.13, Room 103

Sophia University, Yotsuya Campus

■ Open to: students, faculty and staff members, and the general public

■ Language: English (日本語での質問可)

■ Pre-registration required: <https://jp.surveymonkey.com/r/siir20191107>

