

Challenges of UN on Peacebuilding: Roles of US and Japan

The seminar will feature challenges of UN peacebuilding and mediation efforts in conflicted states such as South Sudan, Syria, and Iraq; we will also discuss how the United States and Japan can improve these nation-building enterprises.

Speaker : Daisaku Higashi

Professor at Sophia University (Sophia Institute of International Relations)
He obtained PhD in Political Science at the University of British Columbia. He served for UN Assistance Mission in Afghanistan as a Team Leader for Reconciliation; he also worked for Japan mission to the UN as Minister-Counsellor in charge of peacebuilding & mediation. His publication includes "Challenges of Constructing Legitimacy in Peacebuilding" (Routledge).

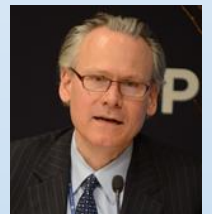

Daisaku Higashi

Speaker : Henk-Jan Brinkman

Chief, Policy, Planning and Application Branch
UN Peacebuilding Support Office

He has been chief of peacebuilding policy in the UN Peacebuilding Support Office in New York since 2010, and led the preparation of the reports of the Secretary-General on peacebuilding. He has also written on such topics as the peace and justice in the post-2015 development agenda and socio-economic factors behind violent conflicts. He obtained a PhD from the New School for Social Research in New York City.

Henk-Jan Brinkman

Commentator : Tadashi Anno

Director, Sophia Institute of International Relations

He is specialized in International Politics. He obtained PhD at University of California, Berkeley. He has written numerous articles on international orders and globalization. His publication includes "National Identity and Great-Power Status in Russia and Japan: Non-Western Challengers to the Liberal International Order" (Routledge).

Tadashi Anno

Moderator : Kazuhiro Maeshima

Professor at Sophia University
Chairperson of the Department of Global Studies

He is specialized in American politics and international relations. He obtained PhD at University of Maryland. He is one of the most famous scholars on American politics in Japan and continues to share his analyses through both international and domestic media. He has written numerous articles and books on political process, media, and international relations.

Kazuhiro Maeshima

Date & time: Mar. 12th(Tues.), 14:00-15:30

Place: USJI Office Seminar Room , 2000 M Street, B1, Washington D.C. 20036

Hosted by U.S.-Japan Research Institute, Washington D.C.(USJI)

1901 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Suite 801, Washington, DC 20006